Faithwalkers 2008 Recap

Previously I wrote to you about the Faithwalkers conference in North Carolina that our church would be participating in. We went and it was a great experience.

In addition to our group of students and staff, we had alumni and even parents join us. The alumni that attended are personal friends of mine and I was glad to be able to fellowship with them again and glad that they got the opportunity to be challenged in everything they were challenged in at the conference. For the parents, it was great for them to spend time with the people their son is living his life alongside and great for them to get a taste of what we are working to accomplish through Seminole Christian Life.

This Faithwalkers was about being totally committed and I was personally challenged in my commitments in a number of areas. In regards to being totally committed to living in the grace of God, I feel that the Lord wants to teach me what that looks like as I work to accomplish the things that he has called me to which are beyond my own abilities. In regards to the Great Commission, I have already made many decisions and I have done many things because of Jesus' commissioning of us to "make disciples of all the nations", yet I am very aware of areas in my life where I have not made Christ's command a top priority. In regards to being totally committed to a life of purity, I feel challenged to go after it in actions, speech, and thoughts with a renewed zeal, not letting my expectations be lowered by the standards of the world.

Looking Ahead - Spring 2009

We have a number of goals for this semester, one of which is to see every student in Seminole Christian Life engaged in reading the Bible. We will be challenging the church to read through the gospels this semester, a chapter a day. Hopefully this will help students to regularly engage in the Word individually and provide opportunity to discuss what God is teaching them as they come together.

Another goal is to see every student equipped to share about Christ with others. Many students desire to share the gospel but aren't quite sure how to communicate it. In the spring semester, we will have an Outreach Training Class, a weekly course designed to equip students to tell people the good news of Jesus Christ.

We also want to see every student engaged in serving. We plan to go through the S.H.A.P.E. assessment with each student to help them understand how God has built them for ministry and then help them to engage in the ministry they have been built for.
