

Understanding & Agreement for Dual Solicitation

Based on the specific job duties contained with the job description of the Reliant ministry position being applied for, Reliant will allow dual solicitation of donors for another 501(c) (3) ministry or church in addition to Reliant. This solicitation must be made within the following guidelines and understanding:

- The Reliant ministry position for which the missionary is employed, and for which financial ministry support is being raised, will include financial development for another 501(c)(3) ministry or church in some form or fashion.
- The initial contact with a prospective Reliant donor includes setting the clear expectation that the Reliant missionary may potentially solicit the donor on behalf of both ministries.
- After being review by Reliant, it has been determined that the Reliant missionary's experience, character and fund raising perspective gives Reliant management a high level of confidence that the dual solicitation will be handled appropriately.
- Reliant reserves the right to disallow any dual solicitation privilege granted to a Reliant missionary, if it later determines that the privilege is being abused or handled inappropriately.
- This privilege can only be granted by approval of both the Reliant Executive Director and Director of Organizational Affairs.
- It is granted only on a case by case basis and is not broad-based for all Reliant missionaries.
- This agreement will remain in effect while the missionary is employed by Reliant or until changed by Reliant.

Name of Other Ministry/Church _____

I _____ will be raising financial ministry support for both Reliant and the above names ministry/church. I have read, understand & agree to the above.

Signature

Date

Reliant Approval:

Executive Director

Date

Director of Organizational Affairs & Treasurer

Date

Cc: Missionary Resources Director