

Post Employment Retiree Program

Purpose

After years of faithful service and sacrifice, retirement marks not an end to mission impact, but a transition into a new season of life. The Retiree Program exists to honor employees who have invested their lives in mission-focused work by providing a thoughtful pathway into retirement, while also inviting donors who have journeyed alongside them to continue their support. This program reflects our shared commitment to care well for those who have given so much, ensuring dignity, stability, and ongoing partnership as they step into this next chapter.

Eligibility

The following criteria determine eligibility for the post employment, retirement 403(b) program.

- Length of Service – employed by Reliant for a minimum of 1 year.
- Class Eligibility – Class 1 employees as defined by the 403(b)(9) plan.
- Age – primary employee must be at least 60 years old and 55 years of age for accompanying spouse.
- Retirement – employee exit is designated as retirement, not voluntary or involuntary termination.

Benefit Amount

Retirement benefits are distributed as an employer non-elective contribution to the retiring employee's 403(b)(9) account per the guidelines below.

- Retirees can receive monthly 403(b)(9) contributions for up to five (5) years concluding on the earlier of the participant's death or December 31 of the year of the fifth (5th) anniversary of the retirement date.
 - Example: Employee retires on June 30, 2025 the contributions will conclude December 31, 2030.
- Monthly 403(b)(9) contributions are up to 80% of the retiree's immediate prior 12 months of includible compensation prior to retirement. Includible compensation are wages found in Box 1 of the W-2 form, plus any employee pre-tax deferrals reported in Box 12 with code E. This means that parsonage is not includible income for the purpose of calculating the previous 12 months of compensation.
- Annual contributions are not to exceed the annual IRC 415(c) limit, which is $72,000 in 2026.
- All contributions are subject to fund availability. Contributions cannot take account balances into arrears.

Participation

A retiring employee may participate in the Retiree Program by notifying Reliant sixty (60) days prior to their last day of employment by emailing benefits@reliant.org. There is no cash option made available in lieu of participation. Employer non-elective contributions for ongoing support from donors into retirement account are prorated on a monthly basis per the benefit amount guidance above.

Donor Engagement

- While donor relationship cultivation and occasional mission site visits may be ongoing, retirees are not permitted to engage in formal support raising activities.
- Retirees need to update their giving page to reflect their retirement status. This can be done by editing the "Missional Role or Title" and "About My Ministry" section of the Reliant.org giving page. A screenshot is provided below for reference.
- Reliant has provided sample language to utilize at the time of retirement to update their donor team of their retirement and the option to continue giving into the new season of life. Additionally, the Donor FAQ Insert may be used to supplement the letter.

Sample Donor Letter

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you. As we/I sit down to write this letter, our/my heart is filled with gratitude for the many years you have faithfully walked alongside us in ministry. Your prayers, encouragement, and generous support have been a constant reminder that we/I have never served alone.

After much prayer and reflection, we/I am entering a season of retirement following a lifetime devoted to missions. While this marks a significant transition for us/me, it does not diminish the deep calling God has placed on our/my lives, nor the gratitude we/I feel for the journey we have shared together.

As we/I step into this new chapter, we/I want to invite you—if you feel led—to continue partnering with me/us through Reliant's Retiree Program. This program provides a way for donors who desire to do so to continue supporting missionaries like us during this season of transition, offering stability and care after years of service.

Please know that this invitation is entirely optional and meant to be prayerfully considered. We/I are profoundly thankful for your partnership over the years, regardless of how God leads you moving forward. Your investment has borne lasting fruit, and we praise God for what has been accomplished together.

Thank you for loving us, praying for us, and standing with us throughout this journey. We look ahead with trust in God's provision and deep appreciation for each of you.
